

Sunday Resources

Sunday Scriptures for Reading Aloud is the first in a planned series of practical, ready-to-use resources, providing high-quality, concise, accessible, enriching material, for every Sunday of the three year cycle - a complete, practical resource for both busy clergy and lay-led congregations.

Send a blank email to subscribe@ssra.uk to receive the latest information on new resources as they are released. Your email address will not be used for any other purpose. There will be an unsubscribe link in every email.

The editor and coordinator of the project is Revd Michael Hampson, who has served in the dioceses of Blackburn and Chelmsford, always working ecumenically, after training for ministry at Ripon College Cuddesdon (1988-1991) and reading Philosophy and Psychology at Jesus College Oxford (1985-1988).