

Midnight Mass

and suitable for other services after midday on 24 December (Year C)

First Reading - Isaiah 9.2,6-7a

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.
The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

On those who dwell in the land of deep darkness - on them, the light will shine.

For a child is born to us, a son to rule over us,
and he will be called Wonderful Counsellor,
Mighty God,
Everlasting Father,
and Prince of Peace.

From the throne of David, he will extend for ever his kingdom of righteousness, justice, and peace.

This is the word of the Lord.

Second Reading - Philippians 2.5-11

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

Let Christ Jesus
be your example.

He did not regard his equality with God
as something
to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a servant.

Born in human form,
he humbled himself,
in faithful obedience,
even to death on the cross.

And now, God has highly exalted him, and has given him the name that is above every name, so that

at the name of Jesus,
all shall bow down,
in heaven, on earth, and under the earth, and declare that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel - Luke 2.1,3-20

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

An order went out, from the emperor, that all the world
should be registered,
each in their own town.
Joseph, a descendant of David, was engaged to Mary, who was expecting a child, so they travelled together to the city of David, Bethlehem, in Judea.

While they were there,
the time came for the child
to be born,
and Mary gave birth
to her firstborn, a son.

She wrapped the child in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them at the inn.

Out in the fields, there were shepherds, keeping watch
through the night.

An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them,
and they were afraid.

The angel said, 'Do not be afraid.
I bring good news
of great joy
for all people.

Today, in the city of David,
there is born a Saviour,
the Messiah,
the Lord.

This will be the sign for you:
you will find the child wrapped in bands of cloth, and lying in a manger.'

A vast choir of angels appeared, proclaiming,
'Glory to God in the highest heaven!
Peace on earth,
and God's blessings on all people!'

The shepherds made their way quickly to Bethlehem,
where they found Mary and Joseph, and the child, lying in the manger.

When the shepherds made known the message of the angels, all who heard it
were amazed.

And Mary treasured all these words, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had seen and heard.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
